Update on the International Ministry of Dr. Randy & Tammy Smith

Upcoming Missions Outreach

We wanted to drop a quick note to let you know that plans are coming together for our next mission trip. On Saturday July 5th a team of 13 of us will fly from Indiana down to San José, Costa Rica. This time we have a mixture of teens on up to potentially retired people. In addition to Tammy and I, both Bethany and our son-in-law Tyler will be able to go.

During the week we will partner with local churches, missionaries, and ministries to bless in whatever ways we are able. Most of our time will be spent on the Abraham Project. However, we will also be doing an outreach in another town that I will report on in our recap newsletter.

As always we will hold our “plans” loosely as things never quite happen the way we originally envisioned. This is part of the wonder of walking by faith and experiencing a bit of the flux of field ministry.

A highlight for this year’s outreach will be to team up with our long-time Costa Rican ministry colleague Max, who, along with his wife Deby and children, have been serving as missionaries in the Middle East for years. Max worked with us when we directed the International Youth Group during our first term as missionaries.

Thank you to those who have given and please pray for God to accomplish His purposes for our team and those with whom we will interact.
